Thank You FOR TELLING THE JEWISH PEOPLE ABOUT JESUS

I want to begin this letter with two simple words: Thank you.

Nearly every Jewish person who has come to faith in Yeshua, including me, can trace our journey back to a Gentile Christian who cared enough to share the Lord Jesus.

Someone invited a Jewish neighbour to dinner. Someone prayed for a co-worker for years. Someone gave sacrificially so that a missionary could visit a Jewish person, or a local congregation could open its doors to one. These quiet evangelists were not well known, but they were faithful, and you may very well have been one of them.

If you have prayed for the Jewish people, given to Jewish evangelism, or shared the gospel with a Jewish friend, we see you, and heaven does too. This article is my thank you, along with some biblical reasons to keep going.

The Great Omission of the Great Commission

When we think of the Great Commission, we usually turn to Matthew 28:19–20: "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

"All the nations" includes the Jewish people. Yet in too many churches, Jewish evangelism has quietly slipped off the list of outreach priorities. We cannot let it become the great omission of the Great Commission. Ask your pastor or missions chair whether the church prays regularly for the Jewish people or supports a Jewish mission. You may find that it does, but too often Jewish evangelism is not an established ministry in the local church.

You care, and you pray, or you would not be reading this. Let me remind you why Jewish evangelism matters, so you can help us put Jewish missions on your congregation's map.

Two convictions stand behind our work. First, Jewish people, like all people, need to accept Jesus in order to have a place in the age to come. Jesus said, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me" (John 14:6). Second, Jewish people, like all people, are beloved by God, who gave His only Son so that the world might be saved through Him (John 3:16–17). Paul called the Jewish people "my kinsmen according to the flesh" (Romans 9:3).

The apostle Paul wrote, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek" (Romans 1:16).

Look at the tense. The gospel is the power of God for salvation for everyone who believes. If it still is, then it is still "to the Jew first." Nothing in the verse suggests the clock ran out.

The word "first" is the Greek prōtos, which carries the sense of priority, not merely sequence. Jesus used it the same way: "But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness" (Matthew 6:33). The kingdom takes priority, and "to the Jew first" likewise describes a priority that remains.

Believers understand Romans 1:16 in three main ways:

- A historic understanding. The gospel went to the Jew first, and after the Jewish rejection of Jesus, it passed to the Gentiles.
- A missions bridge. Paul went to the synagogues as a practical strategy to find God-fearing Gentiles who could carry the message to their neighbours.
- A present priority. The gospel still goes to the Jew first because God still has a purpose for the Jewish people.

I believe the third is the best understanding, and Paul's own life backs it up.

The Pattern of Paul

The book of Acts shows that Paul never lost his burden for his own people. Though he was the apostle to the Gentiles, he went to the synagogue first in city after city (Acts 13:13–52, 14:1–5, 17:1–2, 10, 19:8–10). "In Iconium they entered the synagogue of the Jews together, and spoke in such a manner that a large number of people believed, both of Jews and of Greeks" (Acts 14:1).

Jews and Greeks came to faith together. The pattern was not Jew or Gentile, but Jew and Gentile, side by side in one new family. Nor was Paul preaching to a handful of people. The Jewish philosopher Philo reported that no fewer than a million Jews lived in Egypt alone.[1]

Why You Are Part of God's Plan

God chose the Jewish people to be His vehicle of blessing for the world. He promised Abraham, "I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse. And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed" (Genesis 12:3). The Scriptures, the patriarchs, the prophets, the apostles, and the Messiah Himself came through the Jewish people. No Jews, no Jesus.

Yet, through the tragic history of antisemitism, including the Crusades, the pogroms and persecutions of Eastern Europe, and the Holocaust, the Jewish people have faced attempt after attempt to destroy them. If God had allowed us to be annihilated, how could His promises be fulfilled? We are still here, preserved by God's faithfulness, because my people still play a key role in His unfolding plan for the ages!

Paul explains this when he writes, "For I do not want you, brethren, to be uninformed of this mystery . . . that a partial hardening has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in; and so all Israel will be saved" (Romans 11:25–26). One day, the prophet's words will come true: "I will pour out on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of supplication, so that they will look on Me whom they have pierced; and they will mourn for Him, as one mourns for an only son" (Zechariah 12:10).

That day is coming, and God has chosen sincere Gentile believers like you to help bring the gospel to the Jewish people. Romans 11 is a mandate for the Gentile church. Paul writes, "For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?" (Romans 11:15).

If the world has been blessed this much by Jewish unbelief, imagine the blessing when Jewish people come to faith in great numbers! Paul calls it "life from the dead."

Paul also gives us what I call the jealousy principle: "I say then, they did not stumble so as to fall, did they? May it never be! But by their transgression salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make them jealous" (Romans 11:11). God calls Gentile believers who live the gospel with joy, love, and holiness to turn the eyes of Jewish people to Jesus today.

More than 85 percent of Jewish people who believe in Jesus have come to faith through Gentile Christians. That happened to me. Two of my best friends had already come to faith, and all I could say was, "I want what you have."

So, when you befriend a Jewish neighbour, stand with the Jewish people against rising antisemitism, give toward Jewish evangelism, or speak of Yeshua with gentleness and respect, you are not doing something peripheral. You are joining the plan God set in motion with Jesus Himself.

One verse says it all:

> "You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews" (John 4:22).

The Jewish people have blessed the world through the Scriptures and the Messiah. Now the Lord asks us to make sure they know His love through the lives and words of His saints.

The Example of Hudson Taylor

J. Hudson Taylor, founder of the China Inland Mission, is remembered for taking the gospel to the interior of China. Yet Taylor also loved the Jewish people and stood alongside the Mildmay Mission to the Jews. The story goes that every January 1, this great apostle to the Chinese sent a £5 note to his friend John Wilkinson, who led the Mildmay Mission in London, with the message "To the Jew first." A day or two later, Wilkinson sent a similar £5 check to the China Inland Mission with the reply, "and also to the Gentiles."

That is what I pray for every believer and local church: not "Jewish evangelism or world missions," but Jewish evangelism as part of world missions, a vital part of the mission of every local church.

What You Can Do

Pray for the salvation of the Jewish people and for open doors with Jewish friends. Build a real friendship, since most Jewish people come to faith through relationships rather than tracts. Study Romans 9–11 with your small group. Give, so Jewish evangelism can reach communities from New York to Tel Aviv to Buenos Aires. Also, when the moment comes, tell your Jewish friend what Yeshua has done for you. You do not need to be an Old Testament expert, only honest, kind, and authentic.

THANK YOU To the pastors who encourage their churches to pray for Jewish people by name, the supporters and friends who give to this ministry year after year, and the everyday believers who invite a Jewish friend for coffee or to their table: thank you!

Your brother,

Mitch Glaser (Romans 10:1)

EQUIPPING GENTILE BELIEVERS TO SHARE MESSIAH WITH THE JEWISH PEOPLE

Chosen People Ministries exists to "pray for, evangelize, disciple, and serve Jewish people everywhere, and to help fellow believers do the same." That second part of our mission statement—that is, equipping Gentile believers to share the good news of Messiah with the Jewish people—is vital to our work. Much of our time and resources are spent on educating and equipping believers to share the gospel and fulfil the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19) "to the Jew first and also to the Gentile" (Romans 1:16). Throughout our history, Gentile believers in Yeshua (Jesus) the Messiah have partnered with us and utilized our resources to lovingly reach out to Jewish people with the love of Messiah. But why is it so important to equip Gentile Christians to share Messiah with Jewish people?

The main reason many Jewish people do not believe Jesus is the Messiah—and why it is important for Gentile Christians to know how to lovingly share the gospel with our Jewish brothers and sisters—is that the Christian church has had a long history of antisemitism, and thus Jewish people have had a historically negative relationship with those who claim to believe in Jesus. It is therefore essential that Gentile believers faithfully and lovingly show the Jewish people in their lives the difference between people who call themselves Christian but have hateful hearts toward the Jewish people, and true believers in Jesus as Messiah who have been transformed by the truth of the gospel. Chosen People Ministries has a long history of equipping and inspiring believers to do just that.

While praying for, evangelizing, discipling, and serving Jewish people directly is a significant aspect of the work we do, equipping and inspiring believers to do the same thing plays an equally significant role in our ministry. There are many resources on our website and in our online store to help believers witness to their Jewish friends. For example, Chosen People Ministries has made a number of resources available specifically for churches on our website, such as Sunday school lessons, presentations, and other teaching resources that are intended to educate believers on the Jewishness of their faith and equip them to share that faith with those through whom the Messiah first came—the Jewish people! Aside from these resources, other ways that we train believers to share the good news of Messiah are through short-term missions programs, volunteer and internship opportunities, and more. Here is one story we have of believers spreading the good news of Messiah after being inspired and equipped by our ministry:

> On Maundy Thursday in 2025, one of our staff led a Messiah in the Passover banquet at a local church. He walked through each part of not only the Passover traditions but the Passover story, revealing at each step how it all pointed to Jesus. Jesus is the one who would free us, deliver us, and redeem us so He could take us to be His people, and He could be our God. There were about forty-five people in attendance that evening, and although our staff member did not know it at the time, one of them was a not-yet-believing

Jewish woman who was curious. About a year and a half later, our staff member received an email from the pastor of that church. As it turns out, the woman had returned and, under the guidance of that pastor, has since become a believer in Yeshua and was recently baptised! The tools provided by our staff and the heart of the pastor to see that Jewish woman saved were exactly what she needed, and we are praising God for the connection. She is now attending that church regularly and has begun reaching out to connect with other Jewish believers.

Chosen People Ministries has a long history (132 years!) of equipping believers to join us in our mission of sharing Messiah. Our ministry has many resources on how to lovingly and sensitively share the gospel with Jewish people, and our partners are constantly praying for the salvation and well-being of the Jewish people. Here is another story of how we have fulfilled the second part of our mission statement—except this story is from 25 years ago:

A short time after the terrorist attacks in New York City on September 11, 2001, there was a Chosen People Ministries event in the Empire State Building. At the event, there was a couple who appeared to be the only happy people in the building! Our president, Mitch Glaser, noticing their joyful attitudes during such a time of grief and fear, went up to them and asked why they seemed so happy. Their answer? They said that they had friends who knew Chosen People Ministries and had been inspired to share the gospel of Jesus with them for a long time, so much so that they had become annoyed. Then when the 9/11 attacks began, their son was in the World Trade Center, so they prayed this prayer: "God, if you save our son, then we'll believe in Jesus." And their son survived! Upon learning that God had answered their prayer and saved their son, the couple placed their faith in Jesus as the Jewish Messiah.

So, what are some best practices for how Gentile believers in Messiah can lovingly share their faith with Jewish people, given the vast history of antisemitism in the church? There are many things to keep in mind when sharing the good news of Messiah with our Jewish brothers and sisters. For example, it is important to keep in mind that your Jewish friends may not believe in the Old Testament, or may not be especially familiar with it, as many Jewish people are secular and may not even believe God exists. Even if they do have a religious background, Jewish people are generally taught to reject certain Christian teachings, such as the second coming of Jesus, the deity of the Messiah, and the Trinity; the Trinity especially is viewed by many Jewish people as violating "the Lord is our God, the Lord is one" (Deuteronomy 6:4). Most Jewish people are surprised to find out that the New Testament was written almost entirely by Jewish people and that Jesus Himself was Jewish. In addition, many Jewish people know that if they do put their faith in Jesus, then their Jewish family, friends, and community would not understand, and might even disown them.

While it is essential that we share our faith with our Jewish brothers and sisters (Romans 1:16), it is also important to know that there is no "formula" for sharing your faith in Messiah in a Jewish way, and that Jewish people hold a very wide range of different beliefs! It is crucial to be sensitive to the church's history of antagonism toward the Jewish people by watching the language you use. For this reason, it is better to use "Jesus," "Yeshua," or "Messiah" in place of "Christ" (which is the Greek word for "messiah"), and you can say "tree" instead of "cross."

One of the most important considerations when sharing Messiah with your Jewish friend is to try to understand their mindset toward the gospel and maintain a relationship with them by spending time with them, whether that's just hanging out one-on-one or celebrating Jewish holidays with them! While you should never view a Jewish person as a project and only befriend him or her to "get him or her saved," the best witness is often the witness of a friend or close relation (John 1:40–45). Don't be discouraged if you share the gospel with them and they say no; you can keep looking for ways to extend God's love to your Jewish friends even after an initial rejection.

Though sharing the gospel can feel scary and risky, it is nonetheless worth it. When writing to the Romans, the apostle Paul says, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek" (Romans 1:16). In Greek, the word "first" is prōtos, which does not only mean first sequentially, but "first by way of priority."[2] While it is also important to evangelize Gentiles ("There is neither Jew nor Greek . . . for you are all one in Christ [Messiah] Jesus"—Galatians 3:28), what Romans 1:16 tells us is that reaching Jewish people with the gospel is a priority for all believers in Jesus.

Another reason sharing the good news of Jesus is a priority for the church is that Jesus dearly loves the Jewish people through whom He came! He wept over Jerusalem and said, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem . . . How often I wanted to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks" (Matthew 23:37). This is why Chosen People Ministries not only prays for, disciples, and serves Jewish people everywhere, but also helps fellow believers to do the same. If all believers in Jesus are called to share the gospel (Matthew 28:19), love those whom Jesus loves, and obey His commands, then all believers are called to share the good news of Jesus with the Jewish people. An essential part of our mission is equipping all believers to fulfil that call.

AN UPDATE FROM FIONA:

Sharing God's Heart for Israel: An Encouraging Season at Chosen People Ministries UK

It has been a wonderful and significant season for us at Chosen People Ministries, with many exciting opportunities to share God's Word, teach His purposes for Israel, and encourage Christians to discover more about the Jewish roots of our faith.

One of the highlights I've had is the opportunity to speak in churches about the Autumn Feasts of the Lord and what they reveal about the return of Jesus. These biblical festivals provide a fascinating insight into God's purposes and His faithfulness to His promises. They remind us of the hope we have in Jesus and the wonderful promise of His return. It is always encouraging to see how these teachings help Christians gain a deeper appreciation of Scripture and a greater understanding of God's ongoing purposes for Israel and the nations.

I have had the privilege of having two opportunities to speak on Premier Radio about God's plan for Israel. Through these broadcasts, I have been able to share why Israel continues to matter in the purposes of God and why Christians need to understand the biblical foundations of this subject. At a time when opinions about Israel are often strongly expressed and frequently misunderstood, it is important that we return to Scripture and consider these issues prayerfully, thoughtfully.

We believe it's important for Christians to deepen their understanding, and stand against antisemitism and all forms of hatred, and respond with biblical conviction, prayer and compassion. We want to encourage believers not simply to react to the headlines, but to develop a thoughtful, biblical understanding of Israel and the Jewish people.

This has become particularly relevant in the light of the increasingly serious situation in the UK, where we are witnessing a rise in both anti-Zionism and anti-Semitism, and growing hostility surrounding Israel and the Jewish community. This presents important challenges for the Church. How should we respond as followers of Jesus? How can we speak with truth and grace, challenge prejudice, and demonstrate genuine love for our Jewish neighbours? If you would like a representative form Chosen People Ministries to speak on this important subject then please contact the office or DavidK@chosenpeople.org.uk

As we look back on this season, we are thankful for the opportunities God has given us to teach, encourage and reach out. Whether speaking in churches, sharing on the radio or serving our local community, our desire remains the same: to make the Messiah known, to help Christians understand God's heart for Israel, and to share the good news of Jesus with Jewish people and others.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support. Your partnership makes this ministry possible, enabling us to take these important biblical truths into churches, the wider media and our local community.

We are grateful for you as we seek to serve the Lord and faithfully share His message of hope.

Fiona

SOLID: LEADING THE LEADERS

Chosen People Ministries is in the midst of planning a conference at the end of December called SOLID (Summit of Leaders, Influencers, and Developers), a gathering of Jewish and non-Jewish believers who love and support Israel and are involved in their local Jewish communities. We want to both encourage and equip these young leaders to share Jesus effectively, participate in the discipleship of new believers, and serve as mentors. What sets this conference apart is its focus on leaders and believers ages 35–45, a group often overlooked. These Millennials are "too old" for young adult groups and may not feel quite at home in the older ones either. But many have taken on important responsibilities—in their places of worship, vocational ministry, creative arts, business, and academia—yet rarely receive the feeding or mentoring they need. They are the ones leading, training, shepherding, and mentoring the generation behind them. SOLID seeks to invest in them and inspire them to be movers and shakers in their spheres. May we see more Jewish people come to faith in Jesus the Messiah through the influence of these key leaders!

SIGNS OF HOPE IN LONDON

Our London staff meet not far from the synagogue that was the target of an attempted fire-bombing earlier this year. As a result, amid rising antisemitism and violence, our staff there took down their welcome sign, which reads "Shalom," along with the Star of David that hangs in the window of their building. Recently, though, on two occasions, Jewish women have walked into the building, curious about who works there. Each time, our missionary staff were able to share their faith in Yeshua, the Jewish Messiah, and explain what a Messianic believer is. These encounters have encouraged our staff to put their signs back up and leave the doors open. Tensions have calmed down, with no further attempted arson attacks or violence against Jewish people in the area. Please pray for this period of calm to continue and for the Jewish community in England to feel less threatened. Pray also for the witness of our staff in London.

SHALOM NEW YORK (NY): STORIES FROM THE STREETS

During Chosen People Ministries' annual summer street evangelism campaign in New York City called Shalom NY, one of our staff members was walking through Bryant Park with a volunteer doing spiritual surveys when an older couple noticed their T-shirts with Hebrew lettering and a Star of David and invited them to sit down. The couple turned out to be Jewish Israeli tourists taking a break in the park. They were full of good questions. One thing led to another, and the conversation stretched into a spiritual discussion lasting about an hour and forty-five minutes. The couple shared their email address, and our staff member has since reached out in an effort to keep the conversation going. Pray that Hezekiah* and Joannie* will seek the God of Israel, consider the messianic claims of Jesus, and turn to Him in faith.

That encounter was one of the highlights of Shalom NY. Nearly sixty people from all over the country came to learn how to share their faith in a Jewish way and put it into practice. All week long, teams hit the streets sharing the love of Jesus, the Jewish Messiah, with Jewish and non-Jewish people alike.

One team served at a Jewish food pantry and soup kitchen in an Orthodox Jewish neighbourhood. Afterward, they returned to the streets, sharing Yeshua with anyone who would listen. On another occasion, a staff member was handing out tracts in a park and struck up a conversation with three men who had just gotten off work. Two of them left, but the one who stayed listened carefully to the gospel message and decided then and there to receive Jesus as his Saviour. Praise the Lord!
